Call to Order

Ms. Cathleen Morgan called the School Board Workshop of December 12, 2017, to order at 2:57 P.M.

Purpose of Workshop

- Long Range Strategic Planning (Vision 2020)
 - Welcome: Review Mission & Vision
 - Select District Core Values

The Board Members narrowed down the list of core values and ranked them as follows:

- Excellence
- Integrity
- High Expectations
- Accountability
- Belief that all students can and will learn
- Professionalism
- Respect
- Collaboration
- Continuous Improvement
- Communication
- Agility
- Commitment
- Life-long Learning

- SWOT Analysis

The Board brainstormed their Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats (SWOT).

o Board Goals and Action Plan

The Board decided to develop Priorities instead of Goals. There was consensus on the following Board Priorities:

1. Transform the public’s perception of The School District of Lee County.
2. Be relentless in focusing on decision-making on what is best for every student in all schools.

o Next Steps

The Board will decide at a future workshop how many of the values should be adopted as District Core Values; as well as who should develop the accompanying definitions to put the words into the context of the District.

Good of the Order

There was discussion regarding the motion that was tabled at the last regular meeting of the Board (November 14, 2017) regarding term limits.

(Ms. Fischer entered the meeting at 5:05.)

Adjournment

Ms. Morgan adjourned the December 12, 2017, School Board Workshop at 5:22 P.M.
