THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF LEE COUNTY

Introduction

When it may be necessary to implement school closure(s) due to weather or other emergency situations, the School District of Lee County will make every effort to ensure that our students' educational opportunities continue. The school district has compiled a comprehensive collection of online content and digital resources and provides mobile devices for students to check out for home use to ensure that students can continue their learning without interruption.

While this instructional plan has been created for the School District of Lee County, charter schools may opt to follow the plan if they have necessary mobile technology and software tools. Charter schools are not bound by this plan, and they may implement emergency plans that best suit their specific needs. Parents of charter school students should contact their children's school for information about instructional guidelines and device availability.

The Academic and Instructional Continuity Plan has two components:

- Plan to Transition to Distance Learning
 - Plan to Transition to Distance Learning explains the steps the district is taking to ensure that any student who needs a mobile device to access the instructional resources will be provided with one, upon request, for the duration of the schools' closure, as well as the process plan for checking in.
- Curriculum Delivery
 - Curriculum Delivery explains which resources students will use for core instruction and which materials may be used as supplemental resources to enhance core instruction, as well as the procedures teachers will follow to support their curriculum.
